

ELECT J. M. BARR DIRECTOR-GENERAL

Directors Place Him in Absolute Control of Exposition.

GOVERNORS SHORN OF ALL AUTHORITY

Hereafter Their Function Will Be Advisory Only, and Their Salary, if Any at All, a Nominal One—Second Bond Issue.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION
GRUNDS, July 5.—James M.
Barr was formally elected director-general of the Jamestown Exposition at a meeting of the board of directors held this evening. This followed the recommendation of the special committee appointed to report on the advisability of a change in the management of the exposition. Barr's authority to appoint and remove employees is absolute. This action of the directors was expected, but the future status of the board of governors was in doubt.

The board will be retained in an advisory capacity only, it being shorn of all executive authority. Compensation of its members is yet uncertain, but it will be merely nominal if anything. Director-General Barr is also given authority to reorganize the departments of the exposition under as many heads as he may see fit. At the meeting of the directors the stockholders met and ratified the proposition to place a second mortgage on the exposition to secure a second bond issue of $225,000.

Meet All Obligations.
This, with the first bond issue of $400,000, will meet all obligations of the exposition. The first issue bonds are being held by Norfolk banks to secure creditors of the exposition. One hundred thousand dollars is to be immediately raised for the completion of the exposition in all its details. Unpaid subscriptions to stock, common and preferred, will be pledged to secure this. A trust company is willing to take it as security.

A report submitted showed the salary list of the company to have been $36,000, instead of $150,000, as has been erroneously reported, and that 40 per cent. reduction had been made already, making the present salary list total $20,000. This list will be further scaled by orders given to a special committee.

CARDINAL SENDS THEM GREETING

Deaf Mutes Hear Words of Good Cheer from Head of Catholic Church.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION GRUNDS, July 5.—The eighth annual convention of the National Association of the Deaf, called to order yesterday in the Y. M. C. A. Hall, Norfolk, met to-day in the Auditorium at the Jamestown Exposition.

The exercises were opened with prayer by the Rev. J. C. Cloud, of St.
Paul, Minn. These papers were used and translated by John E. Ray, of Tulaliga, N. C., principal of the North Carolina State Normal School for Blind and Deaf.

After the prayer the president of the association, in a few words introduced J. Edgar Ellison, Lieutenant-Governor of Virginia, who welcomed the visitors. Mr. Ellison's speech was interpreted by Mr. Ray. Following Mr.
Ellison's address, Mrs. O'Rourke, of Buffalo, N. Y., read a message from Cardinal Gibbons, and George W. Veditz, of Colorado, president of the association, delivered an address on "The Future American Deaf." Mr. Veditz was followed by Ben P. Owen, Jr., private secretary to His Excellency, the Governor of Virginia. The reading of papers and discussion of same was followed by the association, which was treated on "The Growing of Fruit by Deaf." This subject was ably handled by Professor Louis A. Devine, of Tennessee. "The Deaf in Organizations of the Hearing vs. Organizations of the Deaf," by A. L. Pach, of New York, was the subject of other addresses.

All the speeches were delivered in the sign language and interpreted by Mr. Ray.

A banquet was to-night given to the association at the Atlantic Hotel, Norfolk. The association will meet tomorrow at Convention Hall, Exposition Grounds, when reports from various committees will be read.

SHIP AFIRE AT QUARANTINE; ALL ESCAPED

Ward Liner Hurriedly Beached, and Passengers Leave in Tugs.

NEW YORK, July 5.—While the Ward Line steamer Monterey, Captain Smith, which arrived to-night from Vera Cruz, Progresso and Havana, was inspected by the health officers, a fire quarantine, and volumes of smoke suddenly poured from the fore hold, where were stored three hundred bales of hemp and a quantity of sugar and wood.

Captain Smith summoned the crew to quarters, the fore hatch was battened down, and within ten minutes four streams of water were pouring into the hold.

Meanwhile the smoke was so dense that it was impossible to get into the chain locker to weigh anchor, and the steamer was headed for the mud flats, off Clifton Landing, where she was beached.

The captain did not summon assistance, but relied on the steamer's fire-fighting apparatus, which proved sufficient. The fire was discovered at 7 o'clock and was under control two hours later.

Late to-night the Monterey was reastored easily, her fore hatch flooded. Part of the cargo had been damaged by fire and water.

The steamer had on board one hundred and twenty passengers. Among these there was considerable excitement for a time, but nothing approaching a panic. Soon after the steamer grounded, all but thirteen of the passengers were taken off by tugs. The remaining passengers will be taken off to-morrow.

The Monterey registers 4,700 tons gross and was built at Philadelphia in 1901. She is engaged in freight and passenger service between this city, Cuba and Mexico.

SAYS PROTEST NOT JUSTIFIED

Confederates See No Objection to Army March Over Sherman Route.

BY WALTER EDWARD HARRIS.
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 5.—Local papers here contain references to an alleged protest among Confederate veterans at Chattanooga against a detail of officers from the Fort Leavenworth military school making a practice march from Chattanooga through Georgia over the line of Sherman's march to the sea, and it is intimated that a formal request will be made to the President to countermand the order.

There was some sympathy with the timid criticism of Father Sherman's proposition to go with a detail of officers last year over the same route, but no objection is justified here among ex-Confederates respecting the present detail. It is a common practice for both regulars and militia to have practice marches over the campaign fields of Virginia, Maryland and Pennsylvania, and the population rather welcomes than discourages the policy.

FLORIDA BANK GOES TO WALL

The Fort Dallas National, of Miami, Placed in the Hands of a Receiver.

WASHINGTON, July 5.—The Fort Dallas National Bank of Miami, Florida, was closed to-day by direction of the Comptroller of the Currency upon information received from Bank Examiner McDonald, that the liabilities of the bank were $200,000, and assets $180,466. According to a statement made on May 20th last, the bank had loans and discounts amounting to $200,000, circulation of $50,000, United States bonds and premiums, $15,500, and "bonds, securities, claims, and cash and cash items on hand, $52,507.

The capital stock of the bank was $100,000; its deposits, $573,018; bills payable, $55,000, and $18,750 was due to banks and bankers.

MOTHER IS IN A DYING CONDITION

Mrs. Darden, Trying to Save Child's Life, Is Horribly Burned.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
EMPORIA, VA., July 5.—Mrs. W. B.
Darden, wife of W. B. Darden, expert machinist to the Emporia Manufacturing Company, of Belvidere, while attempting to save the life of her little girl to-day, who was enveloped in flames, now lies in a critical condition at her home as a result of the severe burns received. The little girl, whose condition was hopeless from the time the physicians arrived, died to-night.
While getting ready to stave attempting to ignite a newspaper, caught on fire, which rapidly spread to the clothing. Both mother and little daughter were terribly burned, and grave doubt is expressed as to the mother's recovery.

JOHN ROCKEFELLER READY TO TESTIFY

Slips Into Chicago Ahead of Time and Escapes the Crowds.

HAD LONG TALK WITH LAWYERS

Outline Plan for Federal Court To-day, When He Will Be Questioned Regarding Resources of Standard Oil—Rogers May Testify.

CHICAGO, July 5.—John D. Rockefeller, president of the Standard Oil Company, and his brother William, a director of that corporation, are in Chicago to-night ready to be present to-morrow in the United States District Court before Judge K. M. Landis to be questioned regarding the resources of the Standard Oil Company.

The Rockefeller brothers reached Chicago at 4 o'clock this afternoon over the Michigan Central Railroad, and their presence in Chicago for several hours was known only to their attorneys and a few relatives. It had been thought that John D. Rockefeller was traveling over the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railroad, as he was reported to have left Pittsfield, Mass., at 8 o'clock last night, and many reporters awaited his appearance at 9 o'clock to-night at the La Salle Street Station. The Rockefeller brothers left the train without being recognized by any one outside of their attorneys and relatives. An automobile was in waiting for the brothers and they were driven direct to the office of Alfred D. Eddy, one of the Standard Oil attorneys. Waiting with Mr. Eddy were the other two attorneys who will represent the company in court to-morrow, John S. Miller and Morris Rosenthal.

Rogers Also to Appear.
The Rockefellers were with the attorneys for two hours. Then they entered an automobile and went to the home of Harold P. McCormick, No. 83 Bellevue Avenue, where they will stay while in Chicago. Mr. McCormick is John D. Rockefeller's son-in-law. The addition of William Rockefeller, and the possible addition of Mr. Rogers to the list of representatives of the Standard Oil became known to District Attorney Sims to-night when a telegram announcing that William Rockefeller was on the way to Chicago, and that H. H. Rogers had started last night received by the district attorney from United States Marshal William Henke, of New York. Mr. Rogers arrived at New York from Europe to-day.

Full List of Witnesses.
Aside from William Rockefeller and Rogers, the following is a complete list of the witnesses who are expected to be in court to-morrow.
John D. Rockefeller, president of the Standard Oil Company; John D. Archbold, vice-president, Standard Company of New Jersey; G. H. Pratt, secretary Standard Company; William P. Howe, assistant treasurer of the Standard Company; E. Q. Barstow, assistant treasurer Standard Company; Charles T. White, of Standard Company; J. A. Moffett, president Standard Company of Indiana; W. P.
Cowan, vice-president Indiana Company; W. S. Surr, secretary and treasurer Indiana Company; E. E. Patton, president Union Tank Line Company; William M. Hutchinson, secretary and treasurer Tank Line Company; Fred A. Wann, formerly general freight agent Chicago and Alton Railway.

It is from these witnesses that Judge Landis hopes to obtain the information that will guide him in fixing the amount of the fines to be imposed on the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, recently found guilty of accepting concessions from the Chicago and Alton Railway on shipment of oil from Whiting, Ind., to East St. Louis, Ill.

TILLMAN DIDN'T SEND CHALLENGE

No Truth in Story That He Wanted Duel With Dolliver.

JACKSON, MICH., July 5.—A story sent out from this city to a number of Eastern papers, stating that Senator Tillman, while in this city, challenged Senator Dolliver to a duel, is regarded here as a pure fabrication. Senator Tillman lectured here Wednesday evening and, for the South before Senator Dolliver's arrival, deliver a lecture Thursday evening.

The duel story hangs upon a severe criticism Senator Dolliver made of the South Carolina Senator in his lecture last night. Senator Dolliver is quoted as saying:
"Most of such type as Senator Tillman, who openly boast of violating the law, who are instrumental in the murder of hundreds of black men, and who preach anarchy, should be behind the prison walls."

The duel was said to be the effect that the two Senators met in this city today and became engaged in a heated conversation over Senator Dolliver's remarks, Senator Tillman finally challenging the Iowa Senator to a duel.

RAILROAD FINED IN THE OIL CASE

New York Central Failed to File Rates on Standard Shipment.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., July 5.—The New York Central Railroad Company was fined $15,000 by Judge Hazel, in the Federal Court this afternoon for failure to file rates on a shipment of oil for the Standard Oil Company. A verdict of guilty was recently returned against the company, and to-day Judge Hazel denied Attorney Hot's motion for a new trial.

STANDARD OIL KING IN COURT

DECIDE TO COUNT ALL VOTES AGAIN

City Committee to Reopen Primary Returns on Thursday Night.

LONG MEETING EXPECTED

Captain Curtis Asks That House Vote Be Gone Into—What Mr.
Saunders Says of It.

At a called meeting of the City Democratic Committee last night it was decided to recount all the votes cast for the Senate and House of Delegates in the recent primary. The meeting for the canvass of the returns will be held in Murphy's annex on Thursday night, and though the work will be divided up between seven subcommittees, the task will probably carry the session far into the morning.
There was practically no objection to affording an opportunity for a verification of the returns. Indeed, the vote for a recount of the senatorial returns was unanimous, but that with reference to the House and of the ticket was: Ayes, 18; noes, 8. Messrs.
Shea, Rector, Montague, Miller, Shield and W. G. Duke voting in the negative.

Precincts Specified.
The request for the senatorial recount came from Mr. A. Belne Blair, and that for a reopening of the House ballots from Captain John A. Curtis.
They were both present, and spoke briefly with reference to the subject.
Mr. Blair's formal request for a recount has heretofore been outlined.
He supplemented this last night with the following letter to Chairman Dol-liver:

"In furtherance of my request for a recount I enclose a letter from a friend telling me that the vote is irregular in the following precincts: First Clay, Second Clay, First Lee, First Madison, Second Jefferson and Second Marshall, which should be conclusive evidence for a recount."

Captain Curtis's Letter.
The formal request of Captain Curtis follows:
"Richmond, Va., July 5th.
"Mr. James B. Doherty, Chairman, etc.
"Dear Sir,—I do not wish to appear as a dissatisfied defeated candidate for the House of Delegates, but I am on June 25th, and I assure you and the committee that I do not know of any irregularities in the primary or count."

"But as Mr. Blair, a candidate for the Senate, has asked a recount for the House, and the committee has just and fair that if his request be granted that a recount be made for the candidates for the House.
I make the request as I believe in the interest of the Democratic party that all parties be interested may be thoroughly satisfied."

"Respectfully submitted for your consideration,
"Yours truly,
"JNO. A. CURTIS."
Rules Adopted.

After granting both the requests and fixing Thursday night as the time for the reopening, the body adopted the following rules for the government of the committee in the matter:

1st. That each candidate shall name one representative, whose duty it shall be to go to the Virginia Trust Company.

WAS BURIED ALIVE TWENTY MINUTES

Edward Sims Entombed in Pit at Twentieth and Main Streets Yesterday.

WAS RESCUED BY LABORERS

Men Struggled Frantically Until They Uncovered Head of Fellow-Workman.

By the sudden caving-in of the sides of a twelve-foot hole at 130 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Edward Sims, a white laborer, was entombed fully twenty minutes before he could be rescued from his perilous position.

Sims was shoveling dirt from the hole, which is being dug at Twentieth and Main Streets to place some gas pipes. Two other men were on the ground above taking the earth away from the mouth of the hole. The pit is about five feet long and four feet wide, and when the collapse of the walls came, Sims was buried alive, and was completely covered by the fallen earth.

Dug Him Out.
The companions of the buried man immediately set about to rescue him, and they shovelled frantically. The two laborers knew that it was but a matter of moments before life would be gone extinct in their entombed companion, and, with perspiration coming in great drops from their brows, they toiled with all their might until the man's head was discovered about four feet from the surface.

Then the dirt was carefully scraped from Sims's head and shoulders, and it was found he was still breathing, though greatly exhausted from lack of air. Fortunately the earth was not packed about him, and between the particles of dirt there remained sufficient air to last him for a few moments. Otherwise he must have died before he could have been rescued.

After Sims's head and shoulders were exposed, the laborers, with the aid of another Mr. Sims, placed a rope beneath his arms, and, with much effort, managed to hoist him from the pit.

The digger was considerably bruised about the body, and both knees were badly hurt. He was attended by Dr.
Arthur B. Cosby, and then taken to his home at Seventeenth and Washington Streets.

Mr. Sims had a watch in his pocket at the time of the collapse, but it never stopped running.

Other laborers continued their work of excavation, though with more precaution to guard against a second accident.

MANAGER SHAFFER QUITS LOCAL TEAM

Finally Decides to Accept Similar Place With Seattle
Club.

RALPH REEVE SUCCEEDS HIM

Bradley and Players Disappointed That Star First-Baseman Is to Leave.

Despite the earnest entreaties of Owner W. B. Bradley for Charles Shaffer to remain as manager of the Richmond baseball team, the Colts' leader last night officially severed his connections with the local organization to accept the position as manager and first-baseman of the Seattle (Wash.) team in the Northwestern League, as was stated exclusively in yesterday's Times-Dispatch.

After a long discussion of the subject of a new leader for the Colts, Mr.
Bradley decided to appoint Ralph Reeve to the position, for the present a temporary one. Mr. Bradley stated that he was firmly convinced that Reeve will give perfect satisfaction, and that the public will accept him with, perhaps, better grace than any other man who could have been chosen.

Shaffer has been considering an offer from the Pacific Coast management for ten days or more. To be explicit, he received a telegram from President and Owner D. E. Dugdale, of the Seattle club, a few days before Richmond's last series in Lynchburg, but at the time, though the position was a more lucrative one than that held by Shafer in this city, he had practically decided not to accept. It was only after his wife, whose home is in Helena, Mont., one of the cities represented in the league to which Shaffer is going, had influenced her husband to go West, that he made up his mind late Thursday night to telegraph his acceptance of the offer.

Decided Finally to Leave.
While Mr. Bradley was cognizant of the fact that his manager had been approached by the Seattle management, he was not informed of Shaffer's final decision until after yesterday's baseball game, when the two, together with the sporting editor of The Times-Dispatch, discussed the entire situation. Shaffer was offered every inducement by Bradley to continue his relations with the Richmond club, but in a manly and straightforward way he gave his reasons for leaving this city.

Judge Portlock Issues Summons

Before Grand Jury.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, VA., July 5.—Judge W. N.
Portlock, of the Norfolk County Circuit Court, to-day issued summons against every police officer of Norfolk county, citing them to appear before the grand jury Monday next to furnish such information as may be needed concerning the alleged violations of the Sunday liquor laws at Pine Beach, and that part of Norfolk county adjacent to the city of Portsmouth; also to furnish information concerning the manner in which the social clubs throughout the county are conducted.

VOTE ENTIRE SUM FOR RICHMOND DAY

Councilmen, With Two Exceptions, Take Stand for Big Celebration.

ALL OR NOTHING, MAYOR DECLARES

Would Have Thing Done Properly or Not at All—Railroads Will Handle Crowds if They Can Get Suitable Estimates
in Time.

With one vote to spare, the Common Council last night passed the joint resolution appropriating $3,250 for the celebration of Richmond Day at the Jamestown Exposition on July 13th.
Only two members present voted in opposition, but they did so with emphasis rather than with timidity. The general plan and scope of the celebration proposed was outlined by the president of the body, Mr. Peters, and by Mayor McCarthy, both of whom are of the special committee on program.
These gentlemen were very emphatic in declaring that unless all the sum asked was voted they would prefer that the celebration be abandoned altogether, and that they would ask to be relieved from further service. If the amount were curtailed.

Plans for the Day.
The roll-call showed the presence of twenty-seven members. The reading of the minutes being dispensed with, the call for the meeting was read by the clerk.

Suburban H. R. Pollard, Jr., then presented the report of the Finance Committee, recommending an appropriation of $3,250 to defray the expenses of the celebration of Richmond Day at Jamestown.

President Peters (Mr. Spence in the chair) addressed the Council in explanation and advocacy of the resolution. He said he did not know that there was any opposition to it, and explained how the recommendation of the amount was arrived at, adding that it had been scaled down from $5,000 to $3,250. The entire sum asked would not necessarily be expended, but it would not be thrown away, and no more would be expended than is necessary fittingly to celebrate Richmond Day. The program had not yet been formulated, and the entire sum would be available as ascertained, he said.

In answer to questions by Mr. Perguson and Mr. D. M. White, Mr. Peters said that it was only proposed to celebrate the occasion in a decent and proper manner. It was proposed to publish a report of the celebration in the City Council, the heads of the departments of the city government and to carry down a band to make music for the occasion.

The grandstand was to be leased, and it was proposed to invite the Richmond Light Infantry Blues to go down as guests of the city. Finally, it was desired to furnish a lunch at the Richmond Building for 1,000 people.

Mayor Addresses Members.
Mr. William L. White made a ringing speech, in which he commended the special committee on program and the Finance Committee, which had reported in favor of appropriation. He recalled the fact that he had always voted to increase the salary of deserving men on the principle that the laborer was worthy of his hire. He impressed upon the Council the dignity and importance of the occasion and appealed for adequate appropriation for the celebration. He appealed to the Council to vote the appropriation unanimously.
Mr. Morton asked that the privilege of the floor be extended to Mayor Mc-Carthy, another member of the program committee. This being promptly accorded, the Mayor addressed the members. He first disabused the minds of members of the idea that the presence of a throng of Richmonders would create any great enthusiasm among the crowds at the exposition. The crowds were not there, and the enthusiasm would have to be carried down from Richmond.

Mayor McCarthy stated that transportation for the day would cost about $1,000; the lunch that was to be served at the Richmond grandstand would cost about $400 for a thousand people, or five or six kinds of sandwiches, salads, coffee and probably lemonade, but beer or other liquor was included in the menu. Music would cost about $150, and the grandstand would cost about $250 for the day. Without occupying the grandstand little of the parade and other features could be seen. The Mayor stated that he was indifferent to the matter of whether the Council celebrated the day or not, but urged that it either be properly celebrated or abandoned altogether. He served notice, as did Mr. Peters, that if the appropriation were reduced to what would become a farce, he would draw from the committee and would not go down that day at all.

Resolution Adopted.
The Mayor highly commended the exposition, stating that nothing was lacking to make it a great success save the attendance of crowds of visitors.

The Mayor's presentation of the situation turned the tide in favor of the resolution, several of the members whose questions indicated that they opposed the expenditure announcing thereafter that they would vote for it.
The resolution was then placed upon its passage, and was adopted by the following vote:
Ayes—Messrs. Atkinson, Barber, Billey, Cary, Davis, Don Leavy, Fergusson, Gates, Green, Graham, H. Hobson, Lee, Lynch, Mills, Morton, Neagle, Phillips, Pollard, Rogers, Richards, W.
P. Richardson, Spencer, W. L. White,

Peters—25.
